

CENTRAL LEAGUE BALL FOR NEWARK ASSURED BY LOYAL ENTHUSIASTS

Largest and Best Meeting of Fans Ever Held in the City Occurred at Orpheum Last Night

South Bend Committee Made Report and Newark Fans Decided to Accept Terms of League Directors for Grand Rapids Franchise—"Boosters Day" Occurs Monday Next When B Class Ball Will be Played at Wehrle Park.

TEAM IS PLEASED.
A telegram to the Advocate from
"our" new ball team, says:
"Congratulations. We are all for
you. (Signed)
"THE NEWARK BALL TEAM."

It took the Newark fans about five minutes last night to decide to accept the proposition submitted by the directors of the Central League to the Newark committee which made the trip to South Bend for the league meeting Monday.

Not only did the fans decide that the offer was a good one and decide to accept it, but they showed every indication of their intention to be loyal to the new Newark Central League team. When the committee in charge of the meeting mentioned
in charge of the meeting mentioned stated that the tickets were already printed and ready to be offered, there was an insistent demand that the tickets be offered at once.

In less than 15 minutes nearly 100 tickets were sold in the audience. The secretary took charge of the money and after the count was made it was found that 99 tickets had been disposed of at one dollar each.

Makes It 100.
President Shyroek reached for his pocketbook and said: "I'll take the one hundredth ticket." After this a few more were sold and the money turned over to Mr. Frank Woolson, secretary-treasurer of the temporary organization.

When the proposition was put up to the fans regarding the posting of the $500 guarantee, Col. W. C. Wells asked if a negotiable note would be acceptable and Mr. Shyroek nodded his approval. Col. Wells came right back with: "I'll go on this note for $100, if the rest of it can be raised."
"I'll go on for another hundred," said Mr. Scott.

With this start there was a general demand for recognition from all parts of the house. J. W. Wintinger offered the third hundred, Leonard H. Graham and Walter J. Bowers of the Advocate office took the fourth hundred. Mr. Beckman of the Sample Shoe Store volunteered to go on for $50 and was immediately followed by Thomas J. Evans for $100, making $550 in all.

That settled this portion of the evening's business and things hummed from that time on.

There was a number of timely suggestions and questions put to the committee which were answered from the stage and there was general satisfaction on all sides with the results of the meeting.

The meeting was called to order about 8 o'clock and Chairman Scott introduced Benny Wintinger, the representative of the fans at the South Bend meeting, stating that Benny had something interesting to report.

Mr. Wintinger addressed the audience and stated that he felt the committee had a good report to make to the meeting. He called attention to the fact that the Newark committee was green in the business of buying franchises or ball clubs, having had but little experience in that line but that he felt satisfied that there would be no criticism of the maiden efforts of the delegates. Mr. Winger-ter then stated that the secretary of the committee, Mr. Woolson, had a typewritten report to be read and that it was given in detail.

This report covered every detail of the long session with the Central League directors and told how the committee finally succeeded in getting the directors to agree to practically what was wanted. The report explained that the committee did not feel empowered to accept this offer without the approval of the Newark fans expressed in a public meeting.

The offer was read in detail and points not understood were explained by the committee and by Mr. C. L.
Shyroek of Zanesville, who arrived while the report was being read.

FIRST LODGE DONATES.

The Loyal Order of Moose is the first secret order of the city to come across with the real stuff to boost the baseball proposition. After the close of the meeting Tuesday night the secretary was informed the order would donate $25 in cash to the guarantee fund and that the sum would be turned over at once. It's such substantial action as this that will make the labor of the committee much lighter.

festation of their interest in the matter, indicated by the big attendance at the meeting.

Following the report there were calls from all parts of the house for remarks from Mr. Shyroek. Mr. Shy-rock was introduced and made a good talk to the boys.

He complimented the committee on its energy at the South Bend meeting and told the crowd a few things about Central League baseball. He described briefly the situation at Grand Rapids and urged that Newark must not follow the example of the town whose franchise and club she captured and allow the project to fall because of a lack of enterprise.

He told of the heavy task which he had had thrust upon him at Zane-sville. He stated that at a meeting of the Zanesville club early this year, he was called to the telephone. During his absence of but a few minutes

DAWSONS GOING TO VENEZUELA EXPO

PATHEC RELICS OF DEAD MEN FOUND AMIDST WRECKAGE OF BATTLESHIP MAINE; LATEST PHOTOGRAPH OF ONE-TIME WARSHIP

The terrific nature of the two explosions that sent the Maine to the bottom of the harbor at Havana is proven by this picture. As will be seen, the forepart of the ship was demolished to say the least. This picture is of particular interest inasmuch as it is the first that shows the parts below what was once the bridge. It was through these parts that the ship was recently obtained into the wreck, and some human remains and the broken sword supposed to belong to the captain of the ill-fated cruiser were recovered. Gen. Bixley, in charge of the work, says the real cause of the explosion will never be known.

MOB VIOLENCE IS THREATENED

Oroville, Calif., June 28.—Mob violence is threatened here today, following the arrest of Mrs. Mary Rumble and her brother Arthur Lewis on a charge of murdering the woman's step daughter, Helen Rumble, aged 13.
The child was found hanging to the rafters in the attic of the home to which she was jointly heir. Although Mrs. Rumble insists that the girl committed suicide, Lewis is said to have admitted to the police that she died as the result of a beating administered Monday when the child failed to milk as many cows as Mrs. Rumble wished.
He said the woman beat the child into unconsciousness and then carried her to the attic and tied the body to the rafters.

CONFERENCE

Will Be Held Between Senate and House on the Direct Vote Measure.

Washington, June 28.—The first step toward the settlement of the differences between the senate and house on the joint resolution providing for the election of senators by direct vote of the people was taken yesterday when the senate decided to grant a conference and appointed Senators Clark of Wyoming, Nelson of Minnesota and Bacon of Georgia as committee of the house yet to be appointed.
The fight in conference will be over the acceptance of the amendment by Sen. Bristow and adopted in the senate, which retains to the federal government the right to control the election of senators. It will be opposed by the house conferees and advocated by the senators.

With agreement in conference unlikely, it is probable that ultimately the entire question will have to be fought out either in the senate or the house on a motion to concede the demands of the other body.

LONGSHOREMEN OF CUNARD LINE STRIKE

Liverpool, Eng., June 28.—Four thousand longshoremen employed by the Cunard, White Star, Ellerman, Dominion and the Canadian Pacific steamship line, struck today in sympathy with the general strike of the Coast and Transport freighters seamen.
All shipping is at a standstill and shipowners are making no effort to employ strike breakers. When in an hour after the longshoremen had abandoned their trucks the crews of every liner now in dock had joined the strike in sympathy with the deck hands.

QUICK ACTION WANTS

This is the age of quick action; the time when the will to do demands immediate accomplishment.
This is the age of direct method—getting to the objective point in the quickest time possible, and by the most direct route.
This demand for immediate response is one of the greatest factors responsible for the development of Want Advertising, which has reached tremendous proportions in the daily newspapers.
Want Advertising is quick action advertising. The Wants each day contain urgent needs that are imperative in their demand for immediate action.
In many instances Want Ads accomplish their desired results within a few hours after they are sent or telephoned to the

DIEGEL CASE

Must Proceed to Trial; Judge Kinkead Overruling Motion for Court to Acquittal.

Columbus, O., June 28.—In a lengthy opinion this morning Judge Kinkead held for the state and overruled the motion of the defense that the court direct a verdict of acquittal in the trial of Rodney J. Diegel charged with aiding Senator Andrews in $200 bribe. The jury was immediately recalled, and the trial proceeded with the introduction of testimony by the defense, the state having rested their case Monday. On Monday afternoon and all day Tuesday was consumed by arguments of both sides on the motion for acquittal.
In his decision Judge Kinkead held that enough evidence had been introduced to show that there had been irregularities in the legislature before the enactment complained of by the defense, thereby justifying the state in its entrapment.

Following Judge Kinkead's ruling
the defense opened its case by placing Senator John N. Stockwell of Cleveland on the stand. Stockwell was chairman of the insurance committee, of which Senators Cetone, Andrews and Huffman, jointly indicted with Diegel, were members. He testified that Cetone tried to have the committee act on the bill, but Senator Andrews, he said, never mentioned the bill to him. He testified that he was in Cleveland on April 27 and 28, the days on which the alleged bribe taking took place. Following Stockwell's testimony, several other character witnesses were called and all told of Diegel's good reputation.

COURT ROOM

At Denver Packed With Throng of Curious Women to Hear Arguments in Henwood Trial.

Denver, Colo., June 28.—The trial of Frank H. Henwood on the charge of murdering George Copeland on the night he shot and killed Sylvester Von Phul during a quarrel over Mrs. John W. Springer of Denver, entered on its final stage when convened today.

The state asked the court to instruct the jury to bring in a verdict of murder in the first degree, carrying a penalty of from ten years in the pen to life imprisonment, or acquittal.

After the defense had taken exceptions to the instructions arguments began, Assistant District Attorney Chiles opening the state's statement to the jury. Bottom will follow for the defense and District Attorney Elliott will close for the state. Just before adjournment for the day yesterday and after the state had rested in rebuttal, Attorney Bottom, for Henwood, asked the court to re-open the case so that the defense might introduce new witnesses to testify regarding letters written by Von Phul to Mrs. Springer and signed "Mabel." The court refused.

The court room was crowded to suffocation today with the same crowd of women, who yesterday heard servants of the household of Millionaire John W. Springer testify that Henwood remained alone with Mrs.
Springer in her bedroom for many hours on May 19.

CATHOLIC CHURCH AT SHAWNEE COLLAPSES

Shawnee, June 28.—St. Peter's stone church, built in 1840 by the Catholic pioneers of Perry county, three miles west of here, has collapsed and is a mass of ruins. This historic old structure, surrounded by the graves of its builders, was abandoned in 1880. Rev. J. S. Hannon, now of Circleville, celebrated the last mass within the walls of the stately old edifice.

BIG PROFIT FOR OLYMPIC

New York, June 28.—With more cabin passengers than any steamer has ever before carried from any port in the world, the giant new White Star liner Olympic was nosed out of midstream from Pier 59 this afternoon at 3 o'clock by twelve tugs and started on her return to England. Seven hundred and thirty of the 1,205 cabin passengers were first class. The profit of the Olympic for the round trip is approximately $175,000.

PRISONER

Cared for His Captor After Officer Had Taken Drink Which Put Him Out of Business.

Chicago, June 28.—An officer of the law being cared for by his prisoner, who had declined to accept a perfect chance to escape, was the curious spectacle presented here at the Harrison Street Police station.

The officer of the law was Deputy Sheriff M. W. Robinson of Polk county, Iowa, and the Samaritan-prisoner, C.
E. Duggan, who was being taken back to Des Moines on a charge of wife abandonment. Duggan was arrested by Robinson at Indianapolis and spent a night at the Harrison Street station.
Yesterday morning he and his captor started for the depot to take a train for the Iowa capital.

"We took just one drink, but it had an awful effect on Robinson," exclaimed the prisoner. "Something must have been wrong with it, for it made him helpless. Of course I could have escaped, but I couldn't leave him sick and helpless, so I brought him here."
The attending physician said that the deputy sheriff would recover.

LATONIA HORSES FOR HAWTHORNE

Chicago, June 28.—Word comes from Latonia that a greater shipment of horses will be made here than was expected. This means that the best horses in training in the middle west will go to the post in the fourteen races that will be run Monday and Tuesday at the Hawthorne race track.

DIRECTS CATHOLICS TO PRAY FOR RAIN

Archbishop John J. Glennon, of the archdiocese of St. Louis, has directed pastors of his faith all over Missouri to pray for rain, and to invite the congregations to recite "Our Father" and "Hail Mary" for the same intention.

THROUGH FOAM OF NIAGARA

Aviator Beachey Flies Down Gorge to Whirl- pool Rapids

150,000 SPECTATORS

Witness One of the Most Daring Feats Ever Accomplished in Aviation.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., June 28.—With the whirl of his biplane motor drowned in the roar of the cataract, and man and machine momentarily obscured in spray and mist, Lincoln Beachey, the California aviator last evening, after circling above the falls, swooped beneath the arches of the upper steel bridge and down the gorge almost to the whirlpool.

Rising again between the sides of the lower river, Beachey soared to the Canadian side, where he made a successful landing.

It was the first time that a bird man had cut through the air currents and mist clouds and leaping foam caused by Niagara's falls and rapids.
To add to the difficulty of Beachey's flight a light rain began to fall as he took his seat in the biplane shortly before 6 o'clock. He mounted upward, moving always in the direction of the cataract, and when he crossed the American Falls he was about 2,000 feet in the air.

In a great sweeping circle he swung toward the north and over the Horseshoe Falls. Down the river he flew almost to the lower steel-arch bridge, two miles below the Falls, then curved to the west and then south again, always dropping as he circled.

On his second circle he went well to the west before beginning his low flight toward the upper steel-arch bridge under which he was to pass.
Swinging again to the north, and traveling about 50 miles an hour, he came on probably not more than 200 feet over the Horseshoe and through its spray.

Once over the cataract he lowered his plane, and rushing with the wind at a speed estimated at 60 miles an hour, he dipped quickly under the arch. As he did so he caught some of the wash of the outlet of the power tunnel, which shoots out from the rocky side of the precipice at that point. At no time from his final dip until the time he was clear of the structure was the biplane more than 30 feet above the spume. The space through which he flew is 168 feet in height and barely 100 feet from side to side. The distance from the brink of the falls to the bridge under which he made the dip is about 400 yards.

Beachey will repeat the flight today.
Yesterday's crowd was estimated at 150,000 persons.

MANY GOLFERS TO PARTICIPATE

Chicago, June 28.—Golfers from St. Louis, Cincinnati, Milwaukee, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Cleveland will participate in the special match to be played on the Ravinslow Links, Chicago, July 8 and 9. The occasion is the decennial celebration of the Ravinslow Country Club.

FAVORABLE REPORT ORDERED ON BILL

Washington, June 28.—The senate committee on census today ordered a favorable report of the house reapportionment bill without amendments. The bill makes the number of representatives in the house 433 instead of 391 as at present.

MORMONS IN SUGAR BUSINESS

Sought Havemeyer's Help to Extend Their Enterprises

NO LAW WAS VIOLATED

Declares Prophet Smith Testifying Before Sugar Trust Investi- gating Committee.

Washington, June 28.—The Mormon church is in the sugar business for the benefit of its people. It sought Henry O. Havemeyer's help to extend its sugar enterprises, not because he was Havemeyer, but because his money would be for the benefit of the Mormon people; it regarded Havemeyer not as an industrial pirate, but rather as a benefactor, and in combining with him in the beet sugar business the heads of the Mormon church believed that no law of the United States was violated.

This, in substance was the declaration to the house Sugar Trust investigating committee of Joseph F.
Smith, president of the Mormon church and president of the Utah-Idaho Sugar Company. He was supported in his testimony by Bishop Nibley, business manager of the Mormon church, who also testified.

The Mormon leaders attracted wide attention, but this was not Mr.
Smith's first experience with a congressional committee. Many present when the Mormon leader appeared recalled his visit during the investigation into the rights of Senator Smoot to retain his seat.

Of the Utah-Idaho Sugar Refining Company, in which he has trustee holdings, more than 400 shares are owned by the Sugar Trust, Henry O.
Havemeyer having taken a personal interest in the experiments of the Mormons in the beet sugar industry and financed their enterprises.

"Have you any official connection with the Utah-Idaho Sugar Company?" asked Chairman Hardwick at the outset of the session.

"I am president of the company,"
Mr. Smith replied.

"Do you own any stock?"
"Yes, sir; I own about 5000 shares individually."

"Do you own any stock in a representative capacity?"
"Yes, I hold 49,815 shares for the church. The title is held in the name of Joseph F. Smith, trustee."

Of the stock of the amalgamated Sugar Company of Ogden, Mr. Smith said he owns about 70 shares individually. The church holds one. Mr.
Smith said the church became interested in the Utah Sugar Company when many people who subscribed failed to pay for their stock and the company, being under bond to complete a beet sugar factory, was unable to do it. The church was appealed to by the stockholders to assume, which it did to the extent of $50,000.

"Does the Utah-Idaho Company pay dividends?"
"Yes, 7 per cent."

"How is that dividend used by the church?"
"In promoting its religious interests."

"Did the church ever go into partnership with Henry O. Havemeyer?"
"The church never did, but the stockholders did. We were striving to build up the beet sugar business in Utah under very great difficulties.
We were anxious to obtain capital.
We were given to understand that Mr. Havemeyer had offered to take an interest in our enterprise and I, as one of the stockholders, was very glad to hear of his offer, which eventually was accomplished. I was willing to sell my portion of the stock to help make up the half interest to the Havemeyers."

"Before the Utah company combined with Havemeyer," Mr. Hardwick asked, "was it not in competition with the American Sugar Refining Company?"

"Not in Utah."

"At that time did the church take legal advice as to whether the combination with Mr. Havemeyer was lawful or unlawful?"
"The church did not, but the company consulted its attorneys, I think, as to the legality of the deal. I am not sure of that, but reasonably certain that this was done. The church itself had nothing to do with the business investments or holdings. Its business holdings are looked after by me as trustee and I do the best I can. The church itself takes no part."

Bishop Charles N. Nibley, business manager of the Mormon church, testified that the original owners of stock in the Amalgamated Sugar Company of Utah received nearly two for one in selling out to Havemeyer.

Recipes for June 29, 1911.
Panned Tomatoes. The tomatoes should be firm and halved or cut in thick slices. They are floured, laid cut side downward in hot butter, closely covered and cooked slowly until brown; the butter remaining in the pan forms the basis of the cream gravy which is poured round them when in the serving dish.

Chicken Salad. Strip all bits of meat from the carcass of chicken; free from skin and fat and cut fine. This with mayonnaise, lettuce and a garnish of radishes, will make a good dish for luncheon.

An Interval

"It's queer how little difference ten years will make in the look of persons when you're with 'em all the time and how much difference it makes when you don't see 'em. And if you don't see 'em for a matter of twenty years, why, you don't know 'em at all."

The words were spoken by Joshua Sparks to his friend, Mahuida Stickler.

"Yes, Mr. Sparks, and that's the reason I don't take stock in the idea that love is anything more'n livin' together."

"I knew of a case of that kind once. It came under my own observation. You know Martha Winkles, don't you?"

"Yes, I know her; she's a skinny old maid."

"Was, when Martha was a gal she was as purty as any on 'em. I was a little soft on her myself then. But I ledn't have no chance. She was sot on Ben Higgins, as fine a lookin' young man as ever had a pitchfork. And Ben was sot on her. They was the loveliest couple I ever see. They was goin' to git married when Ben was tuk sick. He was sick a long while, and when he got well the doctor said he'd better go off somewhere else to git a change of air."

"Ben, he went to Colorado, where the air is dry and pure. He tuk a picture of Martha with him, and they both said their love was the undyin' kind. It didn't matter how long they might be separated, neither of 'em would marry any one else, and they would marry each other when they come together again."

"Ben was twenty when he went away and Martha was nineteen. The separation was longer than either of 'em had any idee of when they parted. Ben was five years gittin' back his health. By that time he thort he'd come to an age when he'd like to have a little somepin' laid up before he got married. So he worked and worked, but somehow riches didn't come. It was twenty-one years before he got back."

"Neither he nor Martha was much at writin', even when he went away. First off they wrote once a month, then once a year, and after that it was once in five years. But they was true to each other all these years."

"Ben was forty-two years old when he come back. He come to me first before seein' Martha at all. I didn't know him. Some men looks purty young at forty-two, and some looks purty old. Ben was one of the old lookin' kind. He wore specs, his head was smooth as a billiard ball, and what hair there was on the sides was grizzly gray."

"Don't y'know me, Josh?" he said. "I'm Ben Higgins."

"Vaal, to be perite I told him I'd had trouble with my eyes."

"He told me that he'd come home to marry Martha. He'd made some money during the last few years and was lookin' forward to the realization of the dream of his life. He tuk the picture of Martha out of his pocket and showed it to me. My sakes, how far away it seemed! There sat a purty young gal that I'd known twenty years before. Now she was gray in the front of her head, and the wrinkles she's got now was beginnin' to spread over her face and neck and arms and hands. I guess it makes a woman sour lookin' to wait for a lover. Anyway, she looked just as if she could bite off a tenpenny nail."

"Ben," says I, "Martha's changed a bit since that was taken."

"Mebbe," he said, "she might have changed somewhat. I'm goin' to see her tonight, and I'll see how much she's altered."

"Come round to my house to supper," I said. "You can go to see Martha afterwards."

"All right," he answered. "I will."

"I asked Martha to come to supper, not tellin' her she was to meet her old lover. I wanted to see 'em when they first saw each other. I didn't go to no trouble of introducin' 'em, as city folks do. Martha she sot at one end of the table by my wife, and Ben sot by me, the yunkers between. Consequence was that Ben and Martha didn't have nothin' to say to each other. Fact is they didn't appear to take no interest into each other. When Ben and I got up from the table I asked him if he wouldn't like to go out and look at the stock. He said he would, and we went to the barn."

"After awhile Ben said he guessed he'd go and see his old love. Then I told him Martha had been settin' at the other end of the table at supper."

"You ought to seen the way he looked at me. There was a pained expression, as though he had built a beautiful structure over him away up into the sky and it had collapsed and come down on his head. The first thing he said was:

"Did she know who I was?"

"No, but my wife has told her by this time."

"I saw he'd better not go to see Martha right off, and I told him so. He agreed with me. When my wife told Martha that she had set at the same table with her old lover she acted about the same way as Ben did. She didn't go home that evenin', fearin' he would go to see her."

"Ben stayed around here for awhile, and Martha went to meet one in awhile, but they pertended not to know each other for what they was when young. Bimeby Ben went back to Colorado, and Martha said she could breathe free out more."

STATE ASKED FOR CONTINUATION OF LIQUOR CASES

The cases of Ohio vs. Robert Henry and Edward Schaller, charged with violating the Rose county option law, came up before Mayor J. M. Ankele Tuesday afternoon, upon a continuance from June 2 last, when it was continued upon application of the attorney of the complainants, two dry detectives of Springfield, O., who gave their names as John Bostick and Charles Nawnman.

The Henry case was called first and testimony was all taken and by consent of attorneys for both state and defense, arguments were deferred until such time as Judge Wickham shall set, after he makes a ruling upon affidavits against Judge C. W. Seward by several other defendants in similar actions.

The case against Hugh McKenna, on the same charge, was dismissed at the request of the attorneys for the state, while the cases against Charles Henry and John Factor were postponed at the request of the attorneys for the state.

The attorneys for the state in these cases were E. S. Randolph of Newark and Crabbe of Dayton, while the defendants were represented by L. C. Russell of Newark and Bert Mayhew of Springfield.

"Say," asked Conkley, looking up from the letter he was writing, "do you know any expression that means the same as 'talking shop'?"

"Well," replied Joakley, "there is 'tonorial emporium' and likewise 'hair cutting parlor.'—Catholic Standard and Times.

Wise or Innocent?
He met her one night at a reception and asked her to go to the theater with him. She accepted, and, as they liked each other, they went again later. Then it got to be a weekly occurrence. Finally he got to thinking that he was solid enough with her to go out between the acts, and so he did. For several weeks he worked this and met with no rebuff. But she was thinking a lot, even though she wasn't saying anything.

One evening she said, "Why don't you go to the smoking room to smoke instead of going to the lobby?"

"Is there a smoking room inside?" he asked.

"Of course. You always say that you are going out to smoke, and it seems so useless to have to take your hat and coat every time. And if you thought of it beforehand you could buy those cigarettes that you seem to like—the ones that smell like cloves, you know—before you come."

He is wondering if she is as wise as it seems or as innocent as it appears.—Boston Traveler.

House Numbers.
Before the advent of the house number only business signs, coats of arms and house names marked the different buildings. Then, in London, for instance, one had to look for Mr. Jones, should he desire to call upon that man, in, say, "Whitechapel, not far from the Blue Boat." It is thought Berlin in 1795 was the first city to employ the numbering system. The German innovators did not put odd numbers on one side of their streets and even numbers on the other. They merely started from the Brandenburg gate and numbered straight ahead, taking no account of change of street. As they proceeded, therefore, the numbers grew higher, the height to which they attained being limited only by the supply of houses. The first house they numbered was No. 1, the last the number that betokened the total number of houses in the city.—St. Louis Republic.

An Author's Odd Aversion.
The "stole" meal had attractions for Edward Fitzgerald, who, among his other peculiarities, hated to see people enjoying their food. On one occasion, after a man had finished a glass of wine in his company and gone out of the room, Fitzgerald remarked, with disgust: "Did you notice how he took up his glass? I am sure he likes it. Bah!" Fitzgerald himself, accordingly, "lived practically on bread and fruit, mostly apples and pears, even a turnip, with sometimes cheese or butter and milk puddings. But he was not a bigoted vegetarian. To avoid an appearance of singularity he would eat meat at other houses and provided it in plenty for his guests. But the only social meal he cared to join in was 'tea, pure and simple, with bread and butter.'"

HOW COMMISSION PLAN WORKED IN HOUSTON.

A Success Despite the Retention of Several Old Officials.

Shortly after the commission plan of municipal government was seen to be such a pronounced success in Galveston the nearby city of Houston adopted it in modified form. The chief departure in Houston was that the mayor, who is one of the five commissioners, was given enlarged authority. His power of appointment and dismissal was made practically supreme. A restricted form of the referendum was also adopted. As in Galveston, the commissioners were elected from the city at large, while out ward boundaries, likewise ward politics.

The result of the experiment was gratifying in the extreme. Under the old system Houston had about the average municipal government. The city was failing to meet expenses, claims against it being hawked about at 20 per cent discount. The new plan has been in force about four years. Nearly a half million of indebtedness has been paid, one and one-half millions have been devoted to municipal improvements, the tax rate has been reduced 3 mills on the dollar, the price of gas has been brought down from $1.50 per thousand feet to $1.15, the cost of arc lights has been reduced from $80 to $70 per year, new bridges have been built and old ones improved, the waterworks have been purchased by the city, city credit is restored, fire protection has been improved, three new schoolhouses have been built, a fifteen acre park was purchased, the paving is better, bickering disappeared from city affairs, and prosperity and progress resulted, and generally the results were as satisfactory as in Galveston. This is all the more remarkable for the reason that there was little change in the personnel of the city government. The mayor and some of the councilmen, as the commissioners are called, were continued over from the old regime. It was the new system, therefore, that wrought the miracle.

NEW AND OLD PLAN COMPARED

Parallel Column Shows Advantages of Commission System.

To gain some faint notion of the superiority of the commission form of city government over the old regime of "boss" ward and partisan misgovernment, glance at a few of the features of the two systems placed side by side:

THE OLD PLAN. Government by a mayor, some minor elective officers and mission elected at a debating society called a "council."

Each officer has power to block the other officers. They call it "checks and balances." Each officer blames the next if you complain.

No lot motion—no pulling and hauling. Conspicuous responsibility.

Each elective officer is a shaming mark for criticism; hence sensitive responsive government.

A short ballot. Every citizen easily masters his job on election day, makes up his own ticket and knows what he is doing.

Politicians out of business—no need for them.

No confusion, no obscurity, no chances for scandals to slip through at election time without detection.

Nonpartisan ballot. Nominations all by petition and vote.

The people, without any moral revolution or sacrifice of earning power, sitting comfortably in the Officials give good government because that's the way to keep popular.

THE NEW PLAN. Government by a single compact commission elected at large. No other elective offices.

Nobody they can blame but themselves if you complain.

No lot motion—no pulling and hauling. Conspicuous responsibility.

WORKS WELL IN SMALL CITIES

Splendid Results of Commission Plan in Texas Town.

Denison, Tex., affords a good example of the working of the commission plan of government in a small city. Denison used to be a typical frontier town, wide open as all outdoors. It is asserted that it was a badly governed city where pure politics was unknown and where public spirit was dormant. No street could be paved without the consent of the property owners, and as they feared to trust their funds with the existing government the streets went unpaved.

When Denison got a chance to say whether it preferred a continuation of the old system or the installation of a new one the verdict was strong in favor of the change. The first thing done was to elect trustworthy men to manage the affairs of the city. The awakened public spirit began to show itself in all kinds of plans for improvement. The wide open element left town under the clean city regime, the streets were paved, a self supporting municipal water system was established, and in other ways the citizens proved that they could make a good government when they were permitted to use the proper kind of machinery.

In Denison, as in nearly all other small cities, there are only three commissioners, one of whom bears the title of mayor and draws a salary of $1,800, while the other two get $1,500 each. All other officials are chosen by the commission, being nominated by the mayor and confirmed by the whole commission.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Rest Your Liver.

Two plain meals a day have been found by many to eliminate sallowiness, biliousness, dyspepsia and to reduce corpulence. If the stomach is rested the overworked liver and other organs obtain a corresponding relief. Hot breads and many conditions will produce facial blemishes, and this proves that a little care in eating is worth the attention that can be given.

REPUBLICANS STILL DIVIDED.

A statement to the effect that Theodore Roosevelt and all the progressive

Republicans save possibly La Follette would support President Taft for a re-nomination, was recently given out by the White House press bureau and printed in all parts of the country. This untruthful report made the progressives angry clear through, and with the result that if they ever had any idea of supporting Taft for a re-nomination, they have abandoned it and will support La Follette. The mainly progressive who is avowedly for Taft is Kenyon of Iowa, who while still posing as an insurgent in his home state, is apparently rapidly developing into a reactionary in Washington.

RAILROADS OVERPAID

Postmaster General Hitchcock at last confesses that the government is overpaying the railroads for the hauling of the mails to the extent of about $3,000,000 a year.

James Manahan, who represents the railway mail clerks in their campaign to prevent the Postmaster General from putting into effect his policy of economizing by overworking the mail clerks, declares the railroads are being overpaid to the extent of not less than $25,000,000 a year.

Democrats in Congress have for years contended that such a state of affairs existed, but the Republicans refused to investigate.

ORCHARD AND GARDEN.

Thin the fruit, if it needs it; this is a better paying method than proping the branches.

Place a two-pound paper bag over

each bunch of grapes when the fruit is the size of small shot. This projects the grapes from insect and bird

injury and insures extra choice clusters. Fasten the mouth of the bag close about each stem with a pin, or wire or string.

Cultivate the spring-set strawberry bed regularly and often. Keep the soil loose and mellow and allow no weeds to get a foothold. After enough runners have rooted cut off all surplus ones the same as if they were weeds. If you are practicing the hill system, keep off all runners.

Look out for the blighted twigs and branches on pear trees. No remedy is known for this bad disease except to cut out the infected parts promptly and burn them. Be sure to cut well below the diseased wood.

Disinfect the pruning implements by dipping frequently in a strong solu-

The little brown slug that defoliate slugs are first seen. Stir the mixture often; or, better yet, have an agent for attachment on the pump. Someslugs, necessitating a second spraying.—Farm Journal for July.

CELEBRATION PLANNED FOR LABOR DAY BY NEWARK TRADES AND LABOR ASSEMBLY

Newark will have one of the greatest Labor Day celebrations in its history next September 4th.

The committee in charge of the affair, appointed by the Newark Trades and Labor Assembly, consists of Albert Bligham, chairman, representing the Green Glass Bottle Blowers; Frank Caine, treasurer, representing the Retail Clerks; Charles Rosser, secretary, representing the local Typographical union; Charles Edmunds, representing the Plumbers, and J. C. Sharrett of the Barbers' union.

Each local was instructed to appoint one or two members to act in co-operation with the general committee, and the names of these appointees will be announced in due time.

The celebration will be held upon the square and all merchants should be interested in having the event in their vicinity. The above committee today sent out letters to local unions in Coshocton, Zanesville, Mansfield, Mt. Vernon, Shawnee, Lancaster and other cities, inviting them to send delegations to Newark on Labor Day.

A committee has been appointed to solicit advertisements for a most attractive program that is being contemplated, which consists of John W. Adams, Charles Butler and James Mc-

Gentlemen: "In the winter of 1903, I had an attack of Gripe, followed by pneumonia and later by consumption. I grew steadily worse. In the winter of 1904 I had cough, night sweats, fever and raised quads and a bad looking stuff and later, I had many hemorrhages. At one time, three in three successive days, and eggs became so distasteful I could keep them down. These physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Eckman's Alternative was recommended to me. After taking a small quantity I felt better. I gained weight and strength and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened until entirely gone. I am now perfectly well. Every thing I say here can be verified by my family and friends."

"HUMAN FLY"

Stopped in Midair by Fellow Workman After Falling From a 20-Story Building.

Chicago, June 28.—Patrick Eustice, one of the human flies whose agility and lack of nerves make skyscrapers possible, lost his balance and toppled from the twentieth story of the Heisen building.

Ordinarily that statement would complete the story. The structural iron builder slipped from a beam in the dizzy heights, just as scores of others had done under similar circumstances, and his companions, certain of what would happen, and not even turn their eyes to see the mangled body below.

As Eustice fell John Murray was pounding hot rivets into place on the nineteenth floor directly beneath him. Murray lunged out from his position, seized the falling man by a flying garment, but the weight of the man was too great to permit him to hold on. All that Murray was able to do was to swing his fellow workman out of his course and into the opening in the shaft at the eighteenth floor. He fell headlong upon two crossed beams on the eighteenth floor, and half way off and clung there. His thigh was injured, but not seriously.

Chicago: After being denied admission to the probate court because he was in his shirt sleeves, John Sullivan, a 200-pound liverman, borrowed a coat from 100-pound Assistant Judge Rainey and won his case.

END OF SESSION IS NOT IN SIGHT

Possibility That Congress Will Work Until Winter.

MAY BE SENATE COMPROMISE.

Crane and Smith Are Striving Valiantly to Establish Peace, but Their Efforts Are Opposed by Men Leading Various Factions, and Allaying Storm Is Not An Easy Task.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, June 28.—[Special.]—Many congressional prognosticators fixed the end of the fiscal year as the probable date of adjournment when the present extra session was called. Looking at the prospects as the new fiscal year is about to begin, it would not be strange to see three or four months of the present session.

And yet a few days before the wool bill reached the senate there seemed to be prospects that the debate on the reciprocity measure might collapse and congress melt away as snow under the summer sun. But the outlook now is for a merry, merry time, and no one can predict a probable adjournment.

Unless the spirit of compromise, which has often prevailed in the senate, shall be invoked soon there will be a protracted session, and perhaps those predictions about remaining "until snow flies" will be fulfilled.

W. Murray and John Walker.

The busy men, the compromisers, so to speak, upon whom frail hope now depends are W. Murray Crane and John Walker Smith. Massachusetts and Maryland are expected to unravel the tangled skein. Crane is often seen ambling about the senate, going from man to man with a few words to each, and is supposed to have imparted some important information. He will disappear into the Republican cloakroom, and Smith will make a tour of the senate. A little later Crane's head will appear at the Republican cloakroom door, and Smith will leave the Democratic side, and the two will be seen no more for half an hour. They have been in conference, and great questions of senate procedure have been under discussion, and presumably everything has been fixed.

Meanwhile, however, the Penroses, Gallingers, Heyburns and other impetuous regulars; the La Follettes, the Clapps, Cumminses and Bristows of the Insurgents; the Dixons, the Nelsons and other near Insurgents; the Culbersons, the Gores, the Williamsses and other Democrats have been raising a storm in the senate which completely upsets all plans of the two smooth men who would fix up everything and prevent these unseemly senatorial rows and ructions. But if there is peace the dove will be in charge of W. Murray and John Walker.

One of Champ's Wanta.

In a discussion of the wool bill Speaker Clark had a colloquy with Congressman Payne, and the New Yorker reminded Clark that the duty was taken off hides for the purpose of reducing the price of shoes, but there was no reduction.

"Both of us helped to take the duty off hides," said Champ, "and the promise was made that shoes would go down 25 or 50 cents a pair. I would like to get hold of that crowd that came down here and promised that."

"I am sorry that the gentleman was fooled," said Payne consolingly. "They did not fool me, for I did not believe a word of it."

It Does Look Odd.

Senator Heyburn of Idaho declared that the bill to prevent campaign contributions and great expenditures for the election of senators and members of the house was in fact a confession that these men were settling a watch over themselves, passing a law to prevent themselves from becoming criminals. Put in that way, it did sound odd.

The real facts are that the intention of the proposed law is to prevent a comparatively few men from buying their way into the senate and into the house. The large and honest majority seek a method to prevent a dishonest minority from gaining legislative power by corrupt means or the lavish use of money in what is claimed to be a legitimate manner.

An Elkins Adage.

"I am afraid President Taft and the Republicans have not heeded that old adage of the late Senator Elkins," remarked a Republican after the hot tariff fight last week.

Elkins always said, "Don't scratch up more snakes than you can kill." The impression is that there will not be time enough to kill all the "snakes" of the present session.

"Elkins learned that adage while living in New Mexico," remarked a man who overheard the conversation.

Stenographers Remain.

Although many experienced and valuable employees have given place to new men in the house by reason of the change of political parties, there has been and will be no change in the stenographers. These men are selected by the speaker when there are vacancies, and none is removed. The official reporters become very expert, and even political patronage cannot effect changes in the corps.

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT

Is Organized Under the Supervision of Chief Engineer Marker.

Columbus, Ohio, June 28.—The organization of the State Highway Department under the new chief engineer, James R. Marker, has been completed by him and all the appointments for the office filled.

Clifford Shoemaker of Columbus, who has served in the same capacity under Highway Commissioner Wonders, was re-appointed Deputy Commissioner at a salary of $3,000. Clyde T. Morris, another Columbus man, and a professor in the engineering college at Ohio State University, who has made a special study of road work, was appointed to another deputy position at a similar salary.

Both of these men are Republicans and both of them received excellent positions and salaries from the Democratic head of the State Highway department.

The third deputy, however, is a democrat, A. R. Hinkle of Marion. He is an assistant professor of civil engineering at the university, and he has also qualified as a road expert, and his salary, like the others, will be $3,000. The four division engineers who are to have the superintendency of the work in the four quarters of the state are D. W. Seitz of Putnam county; Harwood Lersch of Lorain county; J. R. Burke, of Fairfield county, and John R. Moore, of Brown county.

Each division engineer will receive $2,000 a year. The chief clerk of the office will be J. H. Tilton, Republican, of Columbus, who was formerly an attaché of the Auditor's and treasurer's office in Columbus.

In the organization of the department, which is to take over at once the supervision of all road construction, maintenance and repairs over the state, expending about $1,000,000 a year. Mr. Shoemaker will have charge of the construction department.

The Bureau of Bridges will be under the personal supervision of Mr. Morris, while Mr. Hinkle will devote his time to the work of maintenance and repair.

The state department will supervise the expenditure of all money for road purposes.

DECIDE AGAINST MOISE.

Atlanta, Ga., June 28.—Charles W. Morse, former ice king, lost another round in his battle for freedom today, when Judge Newman of the U. S. circuit court denied his application for a writ of habeas corpus. Attorneys for Morse gave notice of appeal.

FALLSBURG.

EVELYN THAW DENIES MEETING THOMAS ABROAD

New York, June 28.—Evelyn Thaw today denied that she had ever seen Edward R. Thomas abroad, in answer to reports that it was alleged that she was behind the reported divorce suit of Mrs. Thomas. Seated in a cozy upper West Side apartment where she is living in virtual retirement from the world, Mrs. Thaw said: "The woman to whom Mr. Thomas was attentive is Theodora Gerard, the former show girl, who is said to resemble me closely, and who has taken delight in impersonating me. It is she who went to Reno, telling others she was Mrs. Thaw, reported to be there for a divorce."

BIRDMEN RELEASED FROM MARION JAIL

Marion, Ind., June 28.—When an aviation meet is arranged for the aviators have to aviate or go to jail in Marion. Rene Simon, Rene Barrier and Captain Prichard of the Moisant international aviators' company, have found this out and today were released from custody after all persons who had purchased tickets to witness flights yesterday called at a local bank and received their money back.

The aviators first planned to fly Monday, but a high wind made all navigation dangerous. Conditions were worse yesterday but a crowd threatened to destroy the aeroplanes unless the men flew and to top it off the aviators were arrested.

Chicago: Lillian V. Hamer, for several years cashier of the Congress hotel, has entered suit for $100,000 breach of promise against William H. Gilbert a Neenah, Wis., millionaire lumberman.

WILL REPAIR THE TROUBLE IMMEDIATELY

The reason that there were no lights in South Newark last night, was that a rectifier bulb on that circuit, No. 1, burned out Saturday night. A second one burned out Tuesday morning early. Last night another rectifier was put on and this one also burned out.

Service Director W. C. Christian this morning called up the Westinghouse agent at Columbus, who replied that he would send in the order to the Pittsburg headquarters to ship three rectifiers at once and it may be that they will arrive in time to put the lights on this circuit in commission tonight, but it might be that this cannot be done until Thursday night.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

Who Says There Are No Brownies?

WHAT'S the trouble tonight?" queried daddy as he poked his head in the bedroom door to see why two little white figures, the owners of two lively tongues, were so unusually silent.

"Nothing," mumbled Jack from the midst of his pillows.

"Nothing?" cried Evelyn indignantly. "Nothing? Daddy, he took my new fairy book and threw it in the dust on top of the tall bookcase."

"My son, I'm ashamed of you. It would be better if you were more fond of books yourself."

"Oh," explained Jack airily, "that wasn't anything but an old fairy book. I wanted Evelyn to mend my ball. There aren't any fairies anyway, so what is the use of reading about them?"

"No fairies? H'm! Then I suppose you don't care to hear my new brownie story, for although I actually saw these brownies myself, of course it couldn't be true, since you have decided there are no fairies."

"Oh, daddy, please tell it," pleaded Jack. "I'm sorry now about the old book anyway. If Evelyn hadn't been so huffy I'd have said so long ago."

"Well, if you children had double barreled magnifying eyes out there in the shrubbery hopping about over the Virginia creeper, among the sundflowers and other plants you would see thousands of funny little brownies like these in this photograph."

"Just see the little pointed brownie caps and the queer goggle eyes," giggled Evelyn.

"Well, they don't seem to have much legs or arms anyway," commented Jack.

"They don't need them," daddy explained. "These are hopper brownies, and they can jump farther with those little short legs. Why, one of them can leap at least six feet, which is equal to a 400 yard leap for a boy of your size. My brownies are not as big as a pea. The brownies drink the juice of plants, and some persons on this account think they injure the gardens. When they keep perfectly still they look just like plant galls or thorns, and the birds that like to eat them are thus cheated of a meal. These photos were made with a lens that enlarged several times."

"But are those really brownies?" insisted the skeptical Jack.

"Some persons call them tree hoppers, but I have just as good a right to call them brownies, since you admit that they look like the little elves. They are only one of the families that live in old Dame Nature's fairland, which is much more wonderful than anything you read about."

THROUGH WHIRLPOOL IN STEEL BARREL

Niagara Falls, June 28.—Bobby Leach of Niagara Falls, Ont., this afternoon nearly lost his life in the whirlpool after making a sensational trip in a barrel through whirlpool rapids. For two hours he remained in the middle of the pool tumbled and tossed about in his steel barrel which most of the time was submerged in the vortex. When taken from the barrel he was bleeding and almost suffocated. Into the very middle of the pool the barrel was swept and there upended. The air vent of the barrel had admitted water that was knee deep when it came close enough to the shore to be caught by fishermen.

TO PALE THIN PEOPLE. Druggist W. A. Erman & Son Offer to Pay For Samsone if it Does Not Make Thin People Fat.

Pale thin people are simply suffering from want of nourishment. They may eat enough, but their food is not properly digested and does them no good.

Samsone the remarkable flesh forming food should be used by all who are pale, weak and thin. It mingles with the food and aids assimilation so that when taken for a short time, Nature will soon assert her normal powers, and the food that is eaten will give strength and good flesh.

The woman who longs for rosy cheeks and the plumpness of beauty, should use Samsone. The man who wants to be strong and well and gain health and good flesh, will find his desires accomplished by Samsone.

Such remarkable results have followed the use of Samsone that Druggist W. A. Erman & Son are willing to pay for the treatments if it does not give the desired results. They make this offer generally and want all who are thin, weak, and out of health to get a box of Samsone from them on these terms.

AUTO TURNED TURTLE ON WAY HOME FROM LAKE

Accident Caused by Broken Axle and Four Occupants Were Terribly Injured—One May Die.

Parties in Newark who greeted their friends, Hon. Frank Ransbottom, and County Auditor Henry Buerhaus of Zanesville, and John Kennedy and William Eberdorf of Roseville, upon their arrival here Tuesday evening on their way home in an auto from Buckeye Lake, little realized how close to death they would be before reaching their destination. The auto had been spending the day at Buckeye Lake and were returning home in Mr. Ransbottom's big touring car. They arrived in Newark shortly before 6 o'clock, and after making a short stop here, during which time they met quite a number of their friends they started east in the best of spirits. While rounding a curve a few miles west of Zanesville, the rear axle of the auto broke, and the machine turned a double somersault, landing right side up against a fence.

Frank Ransbottom, Republican Congressional committeeman of the Fifteenth District, and who was also a Presidential elector in 1908, had his right arm broken and badly bruised. He will recover. Mr. Ransbottom is nearly as well known in Licking county as he is in Muskingum county.

Henry Buerhaus, county auditor of Muskingum county, who has many friends in Newark and throughout Licking county, sustained two broken ribs, and was cut about the head.

John Kennedy, Roseville, traveling salesman, had two ribs broken, was hurt internally and was unconscious for three hours. His condition is considered very serious.

William Eberdorf, also of Roseville, a traveling salesman, had his skull fractured and sustained internal injuries. His condition is considered very critical.

The men were all taken to Zanesville in an automobile, which was following them, and given attention at the Good Samaritan hospital.

UNIQUE TELEPHONE CAMPAIGN FOR THE CHICAGO SINNERS

Chicago, June 28.—A unique telephone campaign to save souls has been instituted by the Christian Endeavor Union of Chicago, as part of its campaign to convert 100,000 persons in a year. Persons who fail to attend church will get a kind invitation—by telephone—to come. If they fail, they will get a telephonic sermon.

The crusade will extend particularly to the wealthy class, especially those with manias for Sunday automobile, golfing and loafing. Sabbath day delinquents will be followed to their homes, clubs and golf links by the "wire squad."

ELECTRICAL STORM STARTED A PANIC.

Kittanning, Pa., June 28.—Eight women mourners were injured here in a panic caused by a severe electrical storm during the funeral of George Serene at West Kittanning.

The mourners were filling out of the house to board carriages for the cemetery when the storm broke. The vivid electrical display and the loud peals of thunder frightened some of the women and they made a rush to re-enter the house. In a moment there was a struggling crowd in the front yard. When calm was restored eight of the women were so badly hurt that medical attention was necessary.

SPRAYING BILL.

The governor has permitted the Cetone spraying bill to become a law. It requires that fruit growers spray each tree thoroughly at least once between November and May for the destruction of San Jose, oyster shell and scurfy scale. Penalty, $25 to $100 for each year's failure. The law becomes operative June 1, 1912, and is to be enforced by inspectors of the state board of agriculture.

GRANVILLE

Granville, June 28.—A special meeting of the village council was held Tuesday night for the purpose of passing the tax levy ordinance for the village of Granville for the year 1911. When Clerk Evans called the roll of members at 7 o'clock, all responded as follows: Messrs. Ashbrook, Ferguson, Jones, Rusler and Partridge with President J. M. Jones in the chair.

The ordinance which provides for a tax levy of four mills, was then passed under a suspension of the rules. The levy is apportioned as follows: For general purposes, 1 mill; for public safety purposes, 2 mills; for public health purposes, 2 mills; for public library purposes, 1 mill; for light purposes, 1 mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold P. Barnes of Wilkinsburg, Pa., have been visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Barnes on Main street, for some days. Harold is now clerking in a drug store in Wilkinsburg and was married to Miss Juliet May Bennett of Cleveland, in Greensburg, Pa., on May 13. She is quite well known in Granville, having visited the family of Mrs. Marlow on several occasions.

Mrs. J. D. Thomas, a well known woman residing several miles north of the village, celebrated the sixty-eighth birthday anniversary Tuesday at her home. In commemoration of the joyful event the children and grandchildren assembled at the home, delightfully surprising Mrs. Williams. She was the recipient of a number of pretty and useful presents and not the least enjoyable feature of the occasion was the serving of a sumptuous dinner at the noon hour. All join in wishing Mrs. Williams many more birthday celebrations.

Quite a number of young ladies from this place went to the vicinity of Jacksontown, where they have been camping out for a few days. Those in the party were Miss Alma Brumbach and friend Miss Cunningham of Cleveland, Fern Ashbrook, Mabel Herriek and a number of girls from the Missionary Home of this place. They were chaperoned by Miss Mildred Hunt.

Mr. Robert Williamson and family and Mrs. B. D. Parsons have moved into his property on the Welsh Hills road, where Mr. E. E. Cutlers resided for many years. Mr. Williamson has made many improvements in the place since he purchased it.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Anderson of Wooster, O., who have been visiting relatives and friends here for some days, have returned home, after having had a very pleasant visit.

Miss Bernice Davis, a charming young woman of near Bucyrus, who has been making a short visit with friends here, returned home Tuesday.

SALVATION ARMY AT SUMMERLAND BEACH

The arrangements for the Salvation Army camp meeting to be held at Summerland Beach are complete. Monday, July 3rd, will be the day of opening this interesting series of meetings which will be in many ways the most instructive and uplifting ever held in this part of Ohio. Captain Martin of the Newark branch of the army is greatly interested and is busy advertising and pushing the camp. The fact that it is being held so near this city and can be readily reached from here will draw a large crowd to the services.

The opening will be in the way of a welcome meeting and will be conducted by Brigadier Josephine Albright, who is the general secretary or second in command of the army in Ohio and southern province. July 4 will be a great day. Commencing at 11 a. m. a young people's service, conducted by Staff Captain Widgery. 3 p. m. Auction sale of children by Major Withers, great interest is being manifested in this unique service. The evening service will be of a patriotic nature, and will consist of music and motion pictures, conducted by the army leader in Ohio, Col. Wm. Evans of Cleveland.

A special program has been arranged for each day and some of the most prominent officers of the Salvation Army throughout the central states, will take part in this program among whom may be mentioned Colonel and Mrs. Evans, Major Withers and Staff Captain Widgery of Cleveland; Brigadier David E. Dunham, with headquarters at Pittsburgh, who is divisional officer for Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania; also Major William Andrews of Cincinnati, and many others too numerous to mention.
